- e. Member must inform the EC that this course of action is being followed and copy Club Secretary with any correspondence.
- f. The EC will support the WFA to fully resolve the complaint.

Club Disciplinary Procedure

- a. In the event of a reported or alleged breach of the clubs codes of conduct by a club member, the EC will action an investigation to establish the facts and determine an appropriate course of action.
- b. A hearing may be convened to aid the investigation and will include a minimum of two EC members. The member under investigation may be supported by a GC member if they see fit.
- c. In the case that the alleged incident either involves or potentially impacts upon a EC/GC member, then that individual will not participate in the supervision of the hearing or be party to determining the proposed outcome.
- d. Format of reprimands
 - o A formal, oral warning in the case of a minor offence.
 - o A written warning for subsequent minor offences or a more serious offence.
 - o A final written warning for further misconduct. The warning should make it clear that dismissal may follow failure to comply.
 - o Dismissal with appropriate notice will follow if there is insufficient improvement.
- e. Misconduct
Conduct, which is sufficiently serious that it requires disciplinary action. In order to warrant dismissal, misconduct must be extremely serious, or repeated on more than one occasion.
- f. Gross misconduct
This is the term used for serious misconduct, which may lead to instant dismissal (that is, summary dismissal). Acts that constitute gross misconduct are those resulting in a serious breach of the Club's Constitution / Codes of Conduct. They might include the following:-
 - o Breach of Club / FA Codes of Conduct
 - o Theft, fraud or deliberate falsification of records.
 - o Physical violence.
 - o Serious bullying or harassment.
 - o Serious insubordination.
 - o Serious incapability brought about by alcohol or illegal drugs
 The committee should provide the offender with examples of what they consider to be gross misconduct.
- g. Types of warning
 - o First warning Oral:
In the case of a minor infringement the member may be given a formal oral warning. Members should be told of the reasons of the warning, that it is the first step in the disciplinary process and that they have the right of appeal.
 - o Written:
If the infringement is regarded as more serious, the member may be given a formal written warning, giving the details of the complaint, the improvement required, the timescale allowed for this and the right of appeal. The warning should also state that a final written warning might be considered if the desired change doesn't occur.
 - o Final written warning:
Where there is failure to improve the behaviour, or an infringement which is considered sufficiently serious, the member may be given a final written warning. This should include details of the offence, that failure to improve may result in dismissal and the right of appeal.
- h. Dismissal or other sanction:

If the behaviour remains unchanged then the sanction imposed may include, disciplinary suspension, demotion or dismissal.

The committee reserve the right to issue an instant dismissal to an individual in a case deemed to represent gross misconduct.

The decision to dismiss must be taken by the appointed Club Committee and the member should be informed as soon as is reasonably practicable and how to make an appeal. The decision to dismiss must be confirmed in writing including particulars of reasons for dismissal.

i. Recording

Nunnery Wood Colts FC will record all written warnings. Any disciplinary action taken should be disregarded after a specified period of time. The normal practice is that severity of the action taken will take different periods of time before they are disregarded.

- o Warnings for minor offences may be valid for up to six months.
- o Final warnings may remain in force for 12 months or more.

Once the time limits have been passed, warnings should be disregarded in any further disciplinary proceedings. These records should be kept confidential and retained in accordance of the disciplinary procedure and the Data Protection Act 1998, which requires the release of certain data to individuals on their request.

j. Appeals

The opportunity to appeal against a disciplinary decision is essential to natural justice. Appeals should be dealt with as promptly as possible. The time limit usually set for lodging appeals is five working days. Individuals should be informed of arrangements for appeal hearings and also of their right to be accompanied. The individual should be informed of the result of the hearing as soon as possible and this should be confirmed in writing.

6. Club Finances

- a. A bank account shall be opened and maintained in the name of the Club (the Club Account). Designated account signatories shall be the Club Chairperson, Club Vice Chairperson, Club Secretary and the Club Treasurer. - f. The Custodians shall be appointed by the Club in a General Meeting and shall hold office until death or resignation unless removed by a resolution passed at a General Meeting.
- g. On their removal or resignation a Custodian shall execute a Conveyance in such form as is published by The Football Association from time to time to a newly elected Custodian or the existing Custodians as directed by the Club Committee. On the death of a Custodian, any Club Property vested in them shall vest automatically in the surviving Custodians. If there is only one surviving Custodian, a Special General Meeting shall be convened as soon as possible to appoint another Custodian.
- h. The Custodians shall be entitled to an indemnity out of the Club Property for all expenses and other liabilities reasonably incurred by them in carrying out their duties.
- i. Each team within the Club is responsible for its own funding by way of subscriptions, fundraising and sponsorship. Each team shall operate its own individual bank account and all monies raised and assets purchased by an individual team shall remain the property of that team. Any assets purchased by a team (or the Club), shall remain the property of the team (or the Club) and not the sponsor or the individual who introduced the sponsor to the team (or Club). Upon dissolution of a team all funds shall be either donated to the club or split equally between all the team's current players the associated bank account shall be closed.

- j. Each team shall keep a proper record of accounts, in a format agreed by the Committee, and these accounts shall be submitted to the Club Treasurer annually at the Annual General Meeting and be available for immediate inspection at any given time.

7. Dissolution

- a. A resolution to dissolve the Club shall only be proposed at an Annual General Meeting and shall be carried by a majority of at least three quarters of the GC members present.
- b. The dissolution shall take effect from the date of the resolution and the members of the EC shall be responsible for the winding up of the assets and liabilities of the Club.
- c. Any surplus assets remaining after the discharge of the debts and liabilities of the Club shall be transferred to the parent Association who shall determine how the assets shall be utilised for the benefit of the game. Alternatively, such assets shall be disposed of in such other manner as the members of the Club with the consent of the Parent Association, shall determine.
